CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

MAY BEACH'S TURN.

Early this summer "Rome" Respass purchased Gold Fox from Mart Jordan at a fancy price. He has carried him some time and yesterday at Harlem in the fourth race, a dash of a mile, was where he aimed to win him out. It was a selling race for three-year-olds and a very ordinary lot started, so it seemed reasonable to infer that Gold Fox might be a "good thing." He opened at 8 to 5 but was hurriedly backed down to even money and less. Rumor has it that Respass and his friends bet a large amount. If they did they must have experienced a series of cold chills down their backs before the judges hung the numbers out.

Gold Fox won all right enough, but it was only by a narrow margin and at the very last stride. His win was also one of the most lucky ones ever seen on the Harlem track. At the head of the stretch, or in fact at any time in the stretch, it was dollars to doughnuts that Ed Tipton would win. This individual rounded the turn for home with a comfortable lead of two lengths and seemed to be going well in hand while Gold Fox was under pressure. Knight on the latter went to the whip at the eighth post, and, under punishment, the colt swerved clear across the track and lost a lot of ground. When Winkfield, who rode Ed Tipton, saw Gold Fox swerve he thought no more of him and became careless and let his mount loaf. This proved a fatal mistake, for when Knight stopped punishing Gold Fox with his whip the latter took a notion to run again and, coming like a flash through the last sixteenth, he managed to get up in time to win by a nose. Had Winkfield gone on about his business, Ed Tipton surely would have won by a length or more.

In the third race May Beach turned the tables on Our Gertie in a surprising way. With practically the same weight up, the Rogers' filly had beaten May Beach easily Saturday at Hawthorne in 1:12, but in this race May Beach won off by herself in 1:13. Such reversals of form are bound to happen among horses of nearly equal speed and there seems to be no way of preventing them. If there could be, racing would lose its "glorious uncertainty." The judge's questioned Jenkins, who rode Our Gertie, but they gained no knowledge from him. He simply stated that he had ridden to orders. They were to wait on May Beach to the stretch and then come on. The boy said he found it easy enough to wait, but the "coming on" was a different proposition. He did the best he knew how and perhaps the filly did too. May Beach was backed heavily at 3 to 1 and less and she never gave her backers one bit of anxiety. She got away in front, set a pace to suit herself and eventually won under a stout pull by two and a half lengths. She is a good filly.

Over the win of Sam Follen the ring and out-of-town poolrooms suffered. This youngster has started only once before, but he ran a fine race, and since then has worked fast enough to beat almost anything. He used to belong to Wood Hoffman, but "Bob" Tucker has him now, and, judging from this race, he is a coming crack. Beauchamp rode him, and, getting away well, was never bothered, winning as he pleased by a length and a half from Wig and Saran.

Out of the second and fifth races came very close finishes. The Bondman, cleverly ridden by Beauchamp, won the second by a nose from Jim McCreedy, and he only beat Brown Dick a short head for second place. As the race was run Jim McCreedy was far the best, and ridden by a capable jockey he could not have lost. As it was Master Stewart got shut off several times and as a last resort he pulled out and went around the entire field.

It was jockey Jess Everett and Decoy that came home with the purse in the fifth race. This was at five and one-half furlongs, and eleven two-year-olds made up the field, and apparently all of these were well backed. Everett had some bad luck with Decoy early in the race, but he got straightened out all right enough before the stretch was reached and when headed for home he was a length in the lead. The colt is none too stout-hearted and all through the final furlong he wanted to stop, but Everett kept at work on him and by clever hand riding and coaxing he succeeded in landing him a winner by a nose from Clara Wooley.

The last race went to Harry Thoburn, who, considering his last race, should have been a well backed choice. He was, to a moderate extent, but at that closed at 12 to 1. He got away second and always being within striking distance he passed Flora Louise, the odds-on favorite, and Garland Barr in the stretch and at the finish was going away.

It was reported that Louis Ezell claimed Florizar out of the last race at Hawthorne, Saturday. This is not true. Florizar still belongs to Mr. Scoggan and the latter says, the rumor that $2,500 or any such sum had ever been offered for Florizar is also a "pipe story."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Coney Island Jockey Club confidently anticipates that its autumn meeting, which opens at Sheepshead Bay track on next Saturday and runs to September 9, will be one of the greatest in its history. The boom in racing is becoming so pronounced that the management has wisely decided to go with the times, and the result is the best endowed program presented in many years. Purses have been increased in a fair ratio to the growing prosperity of racing promoters, and the minimum offered for the coming meeting is $950. For some of the handicaps as much as $1,800 is added, and the result is expected to be generous patronage from owners and followers of the turf.

Should this broad-minded policy prove as successful as anticipated at the Bay, it will probably be accepted as a healthy precedent by the associations further down the fall schedule, and horsemen who fail to take advantage of such opportunities to fill their corn bins for the winter will find few sympathizers when the annual November growl about extra days makes its appearance.

All other events except those leading up to it in the nature of trials will, of course, be overshadowed by the historic Futurity, to be run as the fourth race at Sheepshead Bay on Saturday. The outlook for this rich two-year-old stake has rarely been so open, as there is no established champion to scare away opposition.

One of the largest fields on record is expected at the post, unless owners and trainers learn more in the brief interval as to the respective merits of the candidates than they appear to know now. Shrewd judges were so unanimous the other day in supporting Chacornac at Saratoga that he is almost sure to have a large following in the big event. The son of Juvenal—Laetitia graduated out of the maiden class in such impressive style that if he can come down the hill at the same gait, he will have to be reckoned with. Another prominent factor will be Sydney Paget's fast filly Killashandra, by Goldfinch—Connemara, and great things are also expected of the Kene pair, Virgin a Earle and Doubiet; Eugene Legn's King Bramble, J. E. Madden's Gullien, S. S. Brown's Manville, John Daly's pair, Erwin and His Royal Highness, and a small host of others.—New York Sun.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Secretary Hopper of Latonia, will this fall again blossom forth with his radiant green and orange stripes that have flashed under the wire more than once in contests for supremacy in the turf world. Mr. Hopper has a three-year-old brother to Sherlock (by Eberlee—Blue Bonnet) in training at the Kenton County track. The colt has been ailing since early in the spring as a two-year-old, but he showed enough speed when he was at himself to warrant his being handled and fitted for the 'big' races. Those who have seen the colt and are competent to judge pronounce him one of the handiest and raciest-looking individuals that it has ever been their fortune to see. In addition to his looks he is rounding to nicely, and worked a trial yesterday morning that indicates that he is an individual above the ordinary, and will hold his own in any company in which he is placed. That the colt may succeed is the hope and wishes of the genial secretary's numerous friends throughout the country. Mr. Hopper is a true and loyal sportsman in more than the thoroughbred line, and has had for several years a small but select stable of horses during his career as secretary of the Latonia Jockey Club."

Of work done at Saratoga Monday a New York Newspaper says:

"The thoroughbreds were going along at a merry clip here this morning and some of the work done puts a new complexion on the Futurity. Until now Killashandra has been considered as the best of the tried Futurity candidates. Hildreth gave her a half-mile spin this morning and she acquitted herself in a way not entirely satisfactory to her trainer.

"She had for a workmate her stable companion, the two-year-old colt Angle, who just beat her out in the moderate time of 50 seconds. Of course, the Paget filly may improve between now and next Saturday. This morning she did not seem to have her usual speed.

"Joyner asked a severe question of Mr. Lorillard's candidate, David Garrick. The colt had Masher up, carried about 120 pounds, and turned the six furlongs in 1:15; his stable companion, The Chamberlain, also piloted by Maher, covered the same distance in 1:16.

"Another Futurity candidate, the brother to Gotham, in Blemley & Co's stable, got a smart gallop, doing the distance in 1:15. He had a boy up weighing about 95.

"Rowe's Chacornac turned the distance in very nice style in 1:16. There is a growing impression that this big stiding son of Juvenal will take lots of beating in the Futurity.

"Madden gave Radford a pipe opener, six furlongs in 1:14, with 110 pounds up; Prince of Melbourne an easy mile in 1:46, and his recent purchase, Kilmarnock, a half in :54.

"Other work of the morning was: Sam Phillips, six furlongs in 1:16; Lady Massey, a half in :52; Sanders, a mile in 1:47, and Approval a mile in 1:45. On Saturday Admiration did a fast gallop, five furlongs, in 1:00. She had 114 pounds in the saddle. McDowell also worked his lot. His Excellency covered the five furlong route in 1:03; Rush, a mile in 1:45, and Batten a like distance in 1:44.

A story showing that Mr. Corrigan is still "en force" cropped up the other day. It was in relation to superintendent Packett, of the Saratoga track and his dearly beloved trees. Now, if there is one thing more than another that Mr. Packett dotes on it is the trees which shade "horse heaven." Consequently his nerves were jarred to the quick when Mr. Corrigan said to him a short time

"SWEEPS" IN AUSTRALIA.

The Australian race lottery, in which Mr Stoddart, captain of the English cricketers, won £1,300 the other day, is one of the most extraordinary gambling schemes in the world. It is best known as "Tattersall's sweeps," and has been in existence for many years at the antipodes. The breath of scandal has never touched it and the "drawings" for the bigger events are supervised by a committee of leading citizens and pressmen of the city in which it is at the time located.

George Adams, the organizer, makes it a business to get up sweeps on all the chief Australian races, and, owing to the strong support he receives, is enabled to give prizes that even singly would be taken as modest fortunes by most people. It has been estimated that during a twelve-month £1500,000 of the public money passes through Adams' hands.

Take the Melbourne Cup, for instance. On this race the big sweep is 100,000 subscribers at £1 each, and the prize for drawing the horse that wins the Cup is £30,000. The holder of the second horse ticket receives £7,500 and £2,500 goes to the third horse ticket. In addition some thousands of pounds are distributed among those who get horses, whether they start in the race or not, and there are hundreds of cash prizes, ranging from £100 to the modest "fiver" each. On this race there will be other sweeps at prices to suit the most humble contributors—two consolations, as they are termed, of 50,000 at half a sovereign each, and one of 100,000 at five shillings each.

All through the year racing is going on in Australia, where the horse is idolized, and nearly every week there is a sweep. As mentioned previously, no doubt has ever been cast on the honesty of the organizer, who deducts 10 per cent from all winnings so as to recoup himself for his expenditure and exertion. He employs as many clerks as a large bank, spends thousands annually in advertising, and now holds in his possession nearly a quarter of a million pounds worth of unclaimed prizes. Legislation has time after time been put into force to wipe out "Tattersall's," but without success. The New South Wales government, by act of parliament, drove Adams from Sydney, and he without delay settled in Brisbane. After twelve months location there the Queensland parliament did the same thing and Hobart was the next site removed to and where the sweeps are personally conducted now, under the patronage in person of the prominent citizens. The Australian postal laws compel that all letters containing value must be registered, and it has been stated that Tattersall's brings £10,000 per annum in revenue to the coffers of the colony where its offices are.—London Mail.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

After the steeplechase at Saratoga Monday the horse Mr. Donlap, his owner, C. W. Penniston; the jockey, Southwood; the trainer, William Nixon, and the horse Populist, his owner, M. J. Maloney; the trainer, Pope, and the jockey, Moxley, were all suspended and warned to leave the track and never come near it again. The stewards will report to the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and ask that they be ruled off.

Paddy Tomlinson has written secretary Hopper, of Latonia, from St. Louis, asking that stall room be reserved for his large stable, which will be sent to the Kenton County track after the close of the St. Louis meeting next Saturday. Tomlinson has the crack two-year-old, The Conqueror, in his string.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

ago: "Look here, now, I want those three trees I have put a string around cut down. They are in the way and I don't want them there." This was said in Mr. Corrigan's quiet way, his peculiar drawing voice giving force and strength to the words he wished to specially emphasize. Mr. Packett expostulated in vain. He could not; he should not and he would not. They were the beauty of the place and had been there for years beyond number.
It would be sacrilege to tear them up. He would not do it. Mr. Corrigan merely said,
"You will." The next day the trees, root and branch, were gone. And Mr. Packett knows who it was who took the trees down.—Spirit of The Times.

"Coley" Thompson, the lightweight rider who was set down during the Newport spring meeting, has engaged himself to F. H. Hickok.
Thompson did not perform in the saddle at the Queen City Jockey Club's first meeting this year in a manner which suited the judicial eyes of the occupants of the stand, and therefore was put on the ground for a year. Afterward, during the Latonia meeting, this ben was raised and he was allowed to ride for W. W. Steele only. Since then Mr. Hickok has made a verbal contract with the rider's father to keep him till January 1.

Colonel Jim Murphy, the well-known Lexington turfman, arrived at Latonia Monday from Saratoga with a string of flyers. Mr. Murphy's stable will race at the coming Latonia meeting. Monadour, Murphy's crack three-year-old filly that won so many races at Latonia last spring, was left at Saratoga in charge of Pete Wimmer, the trainer of Ben Holladay and others.

Hon. William C. Whitney returned to this city on Tuesday from England, where he went for rest and found it. He attended the races and purchased some thoroughbred yearlings, but has not yet made up his mind to race in England. In reply to a question Mr. Whitney said: "The Englishmen are beginning to realize that better thoroughbreds are being bred in this country than there. The old stallion, Sensation, at P. Lorillard's stock farm, is second to only one in the list of winning sires in England this year. The Duke of Westminster's Orme heads the list. Lord William Beresford has bought Lorillard's stable and the English sporting papers think that in his American-bred Democrat, by Sensation, he owns the Derby winner of 1900." Sensation has quarters apart from the other stallions at Rancocas, and Mr. Lorillard has always had faith in him as a sire. Mr. Whitney has collected such a powerful stable and takes so much interest in breeding and racing that many of the loyal friends of the turf would like to see him made more prominent in the councils of the Jockey Club.

Winner—B. c. by Cavalier—Lena Oliver.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won very easily at the end. The next two were driving hard. Sam Fullen is a good colt. He is one of the leading sort that will improve as the distance is lengthened. Beauchamp was compelled to use his whip on the youngster to keep him from loafing. Wig ran a good race. Mark this colt. He can win at once if placed right. Satan stopped and came again in the stretch. Rocklight is a deceiver, and consequently a bad betting proposition. Chief Farrell ran a fair race. Hansford best. This accounts for his poor showing. Flora Bird was heavily backed but got interfered with early.
Scratched—13816 Santi Ague, 105.
Sam Fullen, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Wig, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Satan, show, 6 to 5.

14174 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 13, 25, 37, 50, 1:02, 1:15, 1:28, 1:41.

Winner—B. c. by Rossing-on-ne-eua.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in the hardest kind of a drive. The first five were under keen pressure. The Bondman got up in the last stride. His win was a very lucky one. Jim McCleevy was far the best and with anything like a decent ride could not have lost. Stewart got the colt out of repeatedly down the backstretch and was eventually compelled to pull out and go around the entire bunch. On his own courage Jim McCleevy finished very strongly. Brown Dick had no excuses. He simply quit when the pinch came. The same comment applies to Defender II. There was a lot of changing of positions through the stretch.
Overweights—Holdup, 3 pounds.
The Bondman, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Jim McCleevy, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Brown Dick, show, 7 to 10. Defender II, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

14175 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. f. by Bobby Beach—Faithless.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second whipped out; third handily. May Beach had the most speed and won as she pleased. The way she turned the tables on Our Gertie was surprising. Still May Beach had no Benneville to contend with in the first part of it in this race. This may account for her beating Our Gertie so easily. The latter did not show her usual turn of speed at the end. In fact her race will hardly do. Algareta was short. This race will do her good. ABE Furst was always on the run.
May Beach, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Our Gertie, place, out. Algareta, place, 4 to 5.

14176 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 13, 25, 37, 49, 1:02, 1:15, 1:28, 1:41.

Winner—Ch. c. by Silver Fox—Carita.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second driving also. Gold Fox got up in the very last stride. He seemed hopelessly beaten below the sixteenth post and his win was a great surprise. Ed Tipton seemed to be going easily and was showing no signs of distress. On the other hand Gold Fox was all out and when Knight applied the whip the colt threw clear across the track, but when Knight laid aside his whip Gold Fox came on again straight and true, and as Winkfield on Ed Tipton stopped to take a nap, Gold Fox practically stole the race. Malaise showed a lot of speed but could not carry it far. Blue Lick finished strongly.
Scratched—13981 Teutons, 110.
Gold Fox, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Ed Tipton, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Blue Lick, show, 4 to 1. Aureole, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Deceiver—Nantucket.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long, hard drive of two. Third and fourth driving as hard. Decoy was well handled and ran a fine race. The youngster wanted to stop coming through the stretch but Everett, by hard work, managed to keep him going. He rode a clever finish with his hands. Clara Wooley was perhaps the best. She got into a tight place though in the stretch and could not get through. Limond finished very fast. So did Lady Curzon who was bumped and badly interfered with after passing the half mile ground. Tildee will hardly do. She weakened badly when called upon in the stretch. Zaza, off poorly, never showed a bit of speed.
Scratched—14144 Wasanta, 94; 14115 Mission, 97; 13746 Tom English, 97; 13905 Baird, 97; 14144 Florizor, 108; 13769 Ocorro, 97.

Winner—B. g. by St. Cyr—Miss Goodrich.
Off at the first break to a struggling start. Won hand ridden and with something left; the next three were doing their best. Harry Thoburn came away cleverly at the end. His performance was in form. Garland Barr hung a bit when the pinch came. Periwig's race was a cracking good one. He got away poorly and never really got on his stride until the stretch was reached. Flora Louise showed a lot of speed, but could not last. She was jumped on and cut down in the race and after pulling up showed an ugly cut on the left hind leg. Neada ran a good race.
Scratched—(14150) Latch Key, 100; Chonita, 95; 14114 Chicopee, 105; 14155 Mocerito, 108; 14116 The Lady in Blue, 95; 13863 Hanan, 97; 14114 Theresa H., 103; 13840 Ray H., 105; 13908 Bryan, 105; 13815 King's Highway, 105; 13863 Intriguer, 105.

Winner—B. g. by Devotee—Medusa.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out. Red Spider was easily the best, although tiring at the end. Lucky Star ran his race. Hampden was last for the first three furlongs and then closed strongly. He ran three sixteenths to a false break. Island Prince also closed strongly after getting off badly. Sister Alice showed some speed. Wasteful is of no account. Midlight showed no speed.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selection or handicap figures.

JULY FORM BOOKS ARE READY.

The paper and leather covered volumes of Monthly Racing Form, containing all the charts from June 30 to July 31, inclusive, are ready for delivery. In paper, $1; in leather, $1.50. The book is a large one and the supply limited.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

Time, 23.48; 1:15, 1:22.

Winner—B. f. by Siddartha—Silver Bangle.
Post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Montgomery had all his usual speed, but ran himself into weariness in a vain effort to outpace Belle of Memphis and Ed L. There was nothing to the race at the end but the first two. The others were outclassed, though Ed L. showed unexpected speed and will do to watch.
Scratched—14091 St. Augustine, 115; 13729 Alluvian, 115; 13548 Heber Jones, 115; 139562 Car-nage, 112; 14128 Reefer, 110; 13972 Castine, 88.

Belle of Memphis, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Gusto, place, 3 to 1; show, 4 to 5.

Time, 26.1; 52, 1:18, 1:43.

Winner—B. h. by Wood Moss—Lady Kelly.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second easily. Annie Oldfield was much the best. Pretty Rosie knocked her to her knees at the start and she had to run around her horses. Trimmer had a rough journey. Celeste d'Or ran herself out chasing Baquil and Harry Preston.

Scratched—14157 Lord Neville, 110.

Overweights—Pretty Rosie, 4 pounds.

Baquil, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Annie Oldfield, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 3. Trimmer, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Buckmaster—My May.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Hi Nocker was much the best. He drew away at the end and won as he pleased. There was a lot of bumping and Leipzig got more than his share. Fly Lotta and Canrobert had no excuses.
Scratched—14102 Tim Gaine, 118; 14127 May I Go, 108.
Overweights—Rose Caron, 3 pounds; Fly Lotta, 5.
Corrected weights—Canrobert, 108.

Time, 58.1; 5:42, 2:54, 3:46, 5:37, 7:26.

Winner—B. g. by Leonatus—Belle of Runnymede.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Barrier was the best horse at the weights. He raced out in front with Jack Bradley and ran the latter into submission. McJoynt laid out of it too long with Kodak. Ed Farrell corded up at the finish and went to his knees. Mr. Pip finished strongly.
Overweights—Mr. Pip, 5 pounds.
